1. The objectives of the Project are to alleviate rural poverty, improve family nutrition and food security, increase food production, promote local food marketing and raise foreign exchange earnings by import substitution and promoting the export of traditional and non-traditional crops, including food crops, in the Project Area.

2. The Project consists of the following parts, subject to such modifications thereof as the Borrower and the Fund may agree upon from time to time to achieve such objectives:

(1) The increase of agricultural production and productivity:

(a) on about 30,000 mainland farms producing food crops;

(b) on about 8,600 hectares (ha) of cocoa lands on Bioko, comprising: (i) about 3,000 ha already rehabilitated under the Cocoa Rehabilitation Project; (ii) about 3,600 ha of medium-size farms to be rehabilitated; and (iii) the rehabilitation of about 2,000 ha of abandoned suitable cocoa plantations for distribution to the landless, near-landless, unemployed and sharecroppers; and

c) through diverting about 3,000 ha of marginal cocoa land on Bioko into production of non-traditional export crops.

(2) The development of appropriate extension and applied research both on the mainland and Bioko by:

(a) the introduction of an appropriate system on a national basis to improve production techniques and the gradual integration of existing extension activities into the national extension service; and

(b) the establishment of basic applied research structures in: (i) Mbini and (ii) Bioko, each with a plant propagation unit to coordinate all applied research activities, and the conducting of field experiments on existing and new varieties of food crops and tropical fruits, for crop diversification and export promotion, as well as on small livestock.
Part B: Marketing, Credit and Input Supply

(1) The preparation and implementation of a marketing strategy aimed at promoting local marketing, and the export of food crops to neighbouring countries, as well as the export of high quality cocoa and of non-traditional commodities to the world market.

(2) The improvement of cocoa quality through cocoa fermentation and drying techniques.

(3) The promotion of private sector marketing networks to increase local marketing of food and traditional and non-traditional export crops through the establishment of a marketing information system, market research and investment promotion activities.

(4) The rehabilitation of roads along the export corridor of Mbini-Cogo and Evinayong-Akurenam, maintenance of rural feeder roads and purchase of a ferry to operate between Cogo, Akalayong and Coco-Beach in the Republic of Gabon.

(5) The establishment of a Poverty Alleviation Fund (PAF), administered by OFA on a revolving basis, to supplement credit initiatives by financing part – but no more than 40% – of the downpayment required by OFA for village stores, food crop production and marketing, and any other credit requirements for smallholders, as may be approved by PAF’s Management Committee.

(6) The establishment of a Crop Diversification Fund (CDF), administered by OFA on a revolving basis, to promote the crop diversification programme in marginal cocoa production areas.

Part C: Institutional Development

(1) The strengthening of MALFF’s General Directorate for Training, Extension and Cooperative Development through the development of its managerial, budgeting and training capabilities.

(2) The establishment of OFA to support small and medium-size farmer food production and marketing through the supply of agricultural inputs, the provision of marketing assistance and of seasonal, medium and long-term credit in cash or in kind through SAC, including the creation of a branch on the mainland to promote food production and marketing.
(3) The promotion of small farmer and trader associations for their effective participation in marketing and input supply through training in simple bookkeeping, inventory control, group management and business procedures, and access to credit.

(4) The carrying out of a land tenure study on Bioko.

3. The Project is expected to be completed by 30 June 1996.

B. Agricultural Development, Extension and Applied Research

6. The Borrower shall ensure the effective rehabilitation of 2,000 ha of the Institute of Agricultural Development and Promotion (IDEPA) plantations and the allocation of the same to near-landless and landless farmers, the unemployed and sharecroppers in plot sizes ranging from 1 to 4 ha, depending on the ability of families to maintain plots with their own labour. The Borrower and the Fund shall use the information obtained from the IDA-financed socio-economic study of the rural sector to refine these guidelines. The Borrower shall grant appropriate land titles to allottees as expeditiously as possible.

7. The Borrower shall ensure the participation of competent rural development agencies and non-governmental organisations (NGOs), such as the Cooperative League of the United States of America (CLUSA), in relevant Project operations, such organisations and agencies having capacity in farmers' organisation and training, marketing and input supply. The PAF shall be used by OFA to support those landless, near-landless, unemployed and sharecroppers, particularly women, that are not able to meet the 50% down payment normally required by OFA for financing village stores, and to provide additional credit, as may be required, for food crop production, marketing and such other credit requirements for smallholders as may be approved by the PAF's Management Committee.

12. The PAF shall be operated on a revolving basis to provide advances of not more than 40% of the group credit requirement for village stores and not more than 90% for short-term credit and shall have the following features: (a) the groups to benefit shall consist of only smallholders, the near-landless, the landless and the unemployed; (b) each group shall operate a savings programme into which members shall contribute equally; (c) each group shall establish a savings account and shall deposit into the account at least 15% of its credit requirement; (d) an advance to the group from the PAF shall be at the same interest rate as for OFA credit; (e) the PAF shall be administered by OFA through the Management Committee; and (f) recovery of the credit shall be through the same procedures as those used by OFA.
